Statutory Cites of Provisions for Reporting Local Government Boundary Actions

Type of Local Entity	Possible ways an entity's boundary could be changed							Boundary Clarification
	Entity Creation	Dissolution	Consolidation	Division	Annexation	Withdrawal	Boundary Adjustment
County	Not applicable because existing entities already cover all of Utah	Not applicable because existing entities already cover all of Utah	17-50-104	17-50-104	Not applicable because existing entities already cover all of Utah	Not applicable because entities must cover all of Utah	17-50-105	17-50-105
School District	53A-2-101.5	53A-2-101.5*	53A-2-101.5	53A-2-101.5			53A-2-101.5	No provision
Conservation District	17D-3-203	17D-3-203*	17D-3-203	17D-3-203	No provision	No provision	No provision	No provision
Municipality	10-2-119 (city) 10-2-125 (town)	10-2-712*[1]	10-2-610	No provision	10-2-418 (island) 10-2-425	10-2-507 (called Disconnection)	10-2-419 10-2-425	No provision
Local District	17B-1-215	17B-1-1308*	No provision	No provision	17B-1-414 17B-1-415 17B-1-416	17B-1-512	17B-1-417	No provision
Special Service District	17D-1-209	17D-1-603*	No provision	No provision	17D-1-403	17D-1-603	No provision	No provision
Interlocal Entity	11-13-204*[2] (general) 11-13-205 (sewage)	could expire after 50 years; other	No provision	No provision	No provision	No provision	No provision	No provision
Community Development and Renewal Agency	17C-1-201	17C-1-701*	Not applicable because of coterminous requirement	Not applicable because of coterminous requirement	Not applicable because of coterminous requirement	Not applicable because of coterminous requirement	Not applicable because of coterminous requirement	No provision

*Plat map not required for this action

[1] Will by filed by District Court issuing the order
[2] If area is less than the entire county, plat map is required.